As a child, you never could have imagined this. It sounds like a courtly legend come true. Six years at Queen Isobel's court, training to become one of Her Majesty's Own Rangers. The brave knights protect her realm from the backs of their mighty dinosaur mounts. Not bad for a humble farmer's child from a dishonored village.

The Rangers have lives of adventure, of great deeds and noble quests. But why did you want to join their ranks?

- The realm has bandits, rogue mages, and wild dinosaurs. I want to defend the helpless!
- Dinosaurs are so beautiful and awe-inspiring; I want to bond with one!
- After so long in a backwater hamlet, this is my chance to get close to the nobility!
- It's a challenge, and no challenge can beat me!
- Rangers command a lot of respect. I'd like some for me!
